

From the Desk of Susan Williams

As we are finishing the school year, I wanted to share some of the wonderful accomplishments of our students:

- Juan Felipe Vásconez won first place in Storyteller II at Colegio Británico.
- Victoria Guarderas y Manuela Vásquez won first places in the Spelling Bee at Colegio Hontanar.
- Mateo Marañón, Amelia Laso, Emilio Espinosa, Carlos Andrés Ribadeneira and Sara Vivanco all won Gold Medals in the Kanguro Mathematics Competition.
- Amelia Laso also won the Silver Medal in the Math Olympiads.
- The Primary Choir also participated in the 1st International Festival of Youth Choirs obtaining the Diploma to the Children Choir.
- Benjamin Jarrín was elected Secretary General for CAMINU for the 2018-2019 school year.
- Ariana Barreiro has been invited to New York to participate in the EF Young Leaders Forum.
- Alejandro Valdez and Santiago Carrión won a Silver Medal in the Informatrix Worldwide Contest in Rumania.
- Nicolás Guzman won first place in the SEDEM Math Contest.

These are just a few of the recognitions our students have received this year along with sports tournaments and musical performances, both locally and internationally. We are fortunate to work with these talented children and with the many students who participate, both in representation the school and in activities outside the school as well, representing Ecuador.
